Dear Friends in Christ,

How are you doing?

Since the coronavirus pandemic reached Wisconsin, we have lost much, haven't we? Perhaps some peace of mind and, certainly, some freedoms. Since March 17, Wisconsinites have been prohibited from gatherings of 10 or more people, and Masses were cancelled. Since the Safer At Home Order began March 25, we have lost the freedom of movement and were told not to travel unless it's essential. Many have lost jobs. Stress, stress, stress!

We have all lost something dear to us: movement, freedom, jobs, and more. Have you had a cough or heard someone else cough? "Is that Covid-19?!? Are we 6 feet apart?" This creates stress! How are you celebrating Easter this year? I'm planning to stay here instead of visiting my parents. This is a loss...and more stress. By the way, Mary Mother of the Church, "HAPPY 20TH ANNIVERSARY!!!" That's right. On April 9, 2000, two wonderful parishes became one and have been accomplishing much in the name of Jesus – under the patronage of the Blessed Mother – building our future together! It lands on Holy Thursday this year! But we can't gather to celebrate!!! Another loss. Another stress.

So, how do we deal with this new "pandemic stress"? Since it's likely to be ongoing for weeks and weeks, it's worth addressing this question. We'll have ample opportunities to respond well...and to respond badly. In Easter language, some stress-relievers will get us out of the tombs and others will keep us in there...or even move us into a darker, inner chamber. Not the direction any of us would naturally choose!

Technology has the potential of doing both. It has allowed the viewing of Masses online or on television; there are other sources of faith support online, too. We can use technology to connect with loved ones – even the old-fashioned rotary dial phone will do the trick! But we can also spend too much screen time, too much time gaming (i.e. video games), and fall into worse traps like pornography. Some will find themselves eating more and some will be drinking more alcohol. How do we decide whether stress-relievers are liberating us or enslaving us?

Self-care is very important! There's a good kind of "self-care" and an unhealthy form of "self-care." Here's the interpretive key: we never set aside the Two Great Commandments: love God above things; love your neighbor as yourself. What does Christian self-care look like? Love God: reading some Scripture, describe your stresses to Jesus, and give Him 5-15 minutes as well as your heart...with all its complaints. (Don't be afraid to tell Him! However, throwing stones at Him isn't advisable!)

What does Christian self-care look like when "loving your neighbor as yourself"? Do you have a friend who understands you best and always seems to lift your spirits? Call your friend. Talk. Listen. If your friend were struggling, you might give them helpful advice: "Get your rest, get some exercise, sit in the sun, read a favorite book, make a favorite meal, try a new hobby, reminisce: 'Do you remember when...?'" Let's listen to the Commandment again: love your neighbor AS YOURSELF. Are you being good and kind to yourself by doing the things you would recommend to a relative or a friend? Prayer, exercise, communication, and hobbies are very helpful. Is this the year to have a little garden? Also, humor is usually a good medicine. Next week's bulletin will have a little more humor for you.

Jesus didn't stay in the tomb. Alleluia! Even while we follow the Safer at Home restrictions, Jesus doesn't want us to live in a tomb either. He is available to help. (Alleluia!!!) And we're in each others prayers.

Yours in our Risen Lord,

Father Konopa

Mary Mother of the Church

Divine Mercy Sunday (April 19) Jesus appeared to St. Faustina in the early 1930s. He told her that he would make her a missionary of his Divine Mercy to the world. As part of that mission, He gave her the prayers for the Divine Mercy Novena, a nine-day prayer that begins on Good Friday of each year and ends on the Sunday after Easter Sunday (Divine Mercy Sunday). What makes this novena unique is that Jesus himself composed it and each day a prayer can be offered for one specific group of souls such as children, priests and religious, lukewarm souls, fallen-away Catholics, and so on. Pray the Divine Mercy Novena (starting on Good Friday) in preparation for this feast. The novena was published in last week's bulletin.

Divine Mercy Sunday Devotions Due to COVID-19 pandemic, devotions will NOT be held in La Crosse; however, receive God's graces from home this year!

Jesus told St. Faustina that an abundance of Mercy is offered to those who:

1. Are merciful to others through deed, word and prayer.
2. Venerate the Image of Divine Mercy.
3. Trust in God's Mercy.
4. Worthily receive Holy Communion (or make an act of Spiritual Communion see the prayer under Mass Intentions) on the Divine Mercy Feast Day (or Saturday vigil Mass).
5. Make a good and sincere Confession during Lent (up to 20 days before or after Divine Mercy Sunday). Pope Francis stated in his Mass on March 20, 2020, with regard to Confession during the COVID-19 pandemic that people who cannot get to Confession because of the Coronavirus lockdown or another serious reason can go to God directly, be specific about their sins, request pardon and experience God's loving forgiveness: "An act of contrition done well, and our souls will become white like the snow. Return to your Father who is waiting for you. The God of tenderness will heal us; he will heal us of the many, many wounds of life and the many ugly things we have done. Each of us has our own!" Lent is a special time "to let God wash us, purify us, to let God embrace us. Do what the Catechism (of the Catholic Church) says. It is very clear: If you cannot find a priest to confess to, speak directly with God, your Father, and tell him the truth. Say, 'Lord, I did this, this, this. Forgive me,' and ask for pardon with all your heart."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1452, says: "When it arises from a love by which God is loved above all else, contrition is called 'perfect' - contrition of charity. Such contrition remits venial sins; it also obtains forgiveness of mortal sins if it includes the firm resolution to have recourse to sacramental confession as soon as possible."

How to Recite the Chaplet of Divine Mercy

The Chaplet of Mercy is recited using ordinary rosary beads of five decades. The Chaplet is preceded by two opening prayers from the Diary of Saint Faustina and followed by a closing prayer.

1. Make the Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

2. Optional Opening Prayers

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

(Repeat three times)

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You!

3. Our Father

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, Amen.

4. Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death, Amen.

5. The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

6. The Eternal Father

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

7. On the 10 Small Beads of Each Decade

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

8. Repeat for the remaining decades

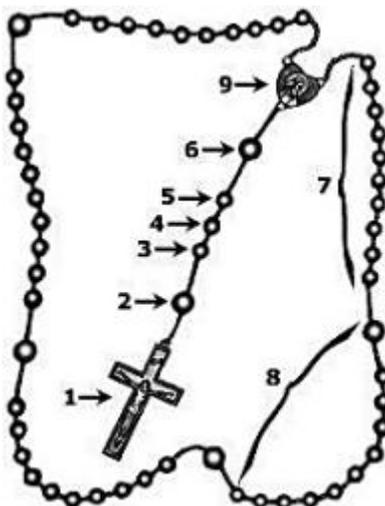

Saying the "Eternal Father" (6) on the "Our Father" bead and then 10 "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion" (7) on the following "Hail Mary" beads.

9. Conclude with Holy God (Repeat three times)

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

10. Optional Closing Prayer

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion — inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

Prayer during COVID-19 Pandemic

Lord Jesus, You traveled through towns and villages curing every disease and illness among the people. At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now in this health crisis so that we may know your healing love.

Heal those who are sick: may they regain their health and strength.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents us from helping one another.

Heal us from our pride, which makes us certain of our health and life apart from you.

Bless health care professionals, and all essential workers, with strength and compassion as they selflessly respond to our needs.

We make this prayer in your strong and holy name, You, who with the Father and Spirit, live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Building Our Future Together

The re-roofing project is fully underway and continues toward a completion goal of Memorial Day. Ledegar Roofing has a large crew on the scene and have made good progress.

On Tuesday, March 31, we had a Pre-Bid meeting with prospective contractors for the Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning project which includes replacing the steam pipes with hot water pipes. In addition to the Project Manager and General Contractor, Fowler & Hammer, mechanical contractors present at the meeting included:

Bernie Buchner Mechanical
Coulee Region Mechanical
S&S Mechanical

Modern Mechanical declined to bid due to already having a full schedule for the summer and Winona Heating & Ventilation didn't attend the Pre-Bid meeting. We had an excellent meeting with the contractors being very engaged and seemingly eager for the project. Bids were due during Holy Week and a decision will be made to determine if we will be able to financially move forward with this project during this calendar year.

These early days of the COVID-19 shut-down and social distancing requirements have given Andy Foley and Cathy Juran the opportunity to thoroughly clean and sanitize the Parish Hall kitchen. In addition, Andy has shampooed and sanitized the Parish Hall carpets including in the Religious Education Center. Thanks Andy and Cathy for your spectacular work!

Please remember to keep the safety of the roofing project workers, as well as our parish, in your prayers as we continue to Build Our Future Together. Happy Easter everyone!
