Faith Formation

CCO Small Faith-Sharing Groups

As we set our eyes on the life of Christ and His mission, we are learning that we need a relationship with Him – a close and personal relationship. Are you asking yourself, “How can I have a personal relationship with Jesus? What does it entail?” Perhaps you also are experiencing some uncertainty about “going on mission” and what that means in your life. You are not alone in these questions!

Catholic Christian Outreach can help! Over the past five years, MMOC has offered this dynamic and life-changing faith study series as an opportunity to grow in relationship with Jesus Christ and fellow Christians. Over 36 weeks, you and 4-7 other group members will explore, discuss, and deepen your relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. You will discover the joy and freedom of letting Jesus be your primary relationship – your center.

Every human heart desires to be known, loved, and cared for – this is what every great relationship offers us. Perhaps it is experienced with your spouse, close friend, or sibling. However, a relationship with Jesus is a gift no other relationship can fully provide. When we enter into a relationship with Jesus Christ, we find that He knows, loves, and cares for us in abundance. In fact, He said, “I have come that they may have life, and have it more abundantly” (John 10:10). Once we experience this relationship, we desire to share it with others – we seek to go on His mission.

“Over the past several years, I had been struggling with how I could develop a more intimate relationship with Jesus. The CCO program has helped set me on a path to overcome that struggle. The facilitator presented the materials in a way that encouraged meaningful discussions and sharing among participants. As a result, we were able to gain different perspectives on various topics that may have been obstacles in our personal faith development. We were all blessed with new friendships as we shared our journey with one another.”

~Leanne Bentzen, 2020 CCO Participant

Several opportunities are available starting in September. Identify your preference, and then contact the group leader with your name, contact information, and any questions you may have.

Called & Gifted

Did you know God gives you spiritual gifts to help you to be effective at your work and a more effective witness to your faith in the workplace? If you wonder how you are called to be a channel of His love and provision at work or in your community, come and begin to discern your unique mission in life. We are excited to offer this opportunity at MMOC, and everyone is invited to start this journey to discover the unique call God has for you and the gifts He gives you to fulfill your mission in life.

Our team, trained by the Catherine of Sienna Institute, will offer the Called & Gifted workshops and discernment groups from September 5 to December 5. Nine meetings will be held on Tuesdays from 6:00-8:00 PM in the Parish Hall.

We offered our first Called & Gifted Workshops this past winter/spring. When we asked participants, "What would you want your fellow parishioners to know about the Called & Gifted experience?" one responded, "Understanding that God gave us charisms to share with others in order to build His Kingdom was new to me. However, after learning about this, it made a lot of sense of how God has called me to serve Him. There were many times in my life that I tried some-thing different, but always seemed to revert back to a particular set of skills. What I know now was God calling me back to use my charisms, and when I used them for the good of others, I was filled with joy and love. The Called & Gifted experience brought to light that God was calling me to do something uniquely designed for me to praise Him."

Two Minutes with Jesus for Eucharistic Revival

1. Jesus is our greatest Friend. Jesus loves each one of us and desires to be with us always. Jesus gives Himself to us in the Holy Eucharist, so that He can live in our heart. The Holy Eucharist is Christ's Body and Blood. We know that Jesus is our greatest Friend because He gives Himself to us completely in the Holy Eucharist. The word Eucharist means thanksgiving. Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, Thank You for giving Yourself to me and being my closest Friend.

2. How do we get to know Jesus better? Jesus knows each one of us better than we know ourselves and He loves us. Friendship always involves two persons. We want to get to know this Person who loves us so much, through reading the Scriptures (the Bible). As we enter Advent, it is a perfect time to read the Scriptures and remember how Jesus came to us, born as an infant. Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, give me the desire to read the Bible a few minutes each day. This week, read the words of the Annunciation of Gabriel to Mary that she will be the mother of the Son of God in Luke 1: 26-38.

OCIA/RCIA – Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (Formerly: RCIA)

Are you seeking to know Jesus Christ more deeply or understand God and His plan for us more fully? Do you want to know why Catholics believe what they believe and do what they do? To learn more about deepening your relationship with Jesus Christ, becoming part of a warm and supportive parish community, and understanding more about the Catholic Faith, we invite you to journey together with us in OCIA. OCIA is tentatively scheduled to start in early September. For more info, please contact Deacon Terry Bell at deacon@mmoclacrosse.org.

August 13, 2023

I arrived in Denver, Colorado on July 5 for a Pastors Summit with FOCUS. It was a wonderful experience which included Dr. Scott Hahn, a scripture scholar who was my college professor. So inspiring!

Denver – The Mile High City – exactly 5,280 feet above sea level.

When the conference was over, I stayed in Colorado for a vacation. One of the places I visited was the state capitol. In 1909, a plaque on the western steps marked the exact one-mile elevation. After several plaques were stolen, in 1947 they carved these words into the riser (i.e. vertical part) of the 15th step: ONE MILE ABOVE SEA LEVEL.

Twenty-two years later a new brass benchmark was placed on the 18th step after several Colorado State University engineering students resurveyed the elevation and concluded that the inscription was 3 steps too low.

In 2003, a more accurate measurement was made where a third marker was installed: the 13th step.

While this is probably embarrassing, especially since the chiseled granite on the 15th step is the most obvious marker to this day, it was the right thing to do.

I have a similar embarrassment... one that I'm comfortable with.

In the March 26 bulletin, I listed "items we have learned along the way that have us actively improving the campus with a variety of projects," including some which "are barely noticeable to the majority of people and many are low cost, especially when considering the $9 million project of Building Our Future Together."

The last one mentioned on the list was the Religious Education Center:

"Under consideration is renaming this 'Faith Formation Center' which matches the new parish vision. Our pursuit isn't limited to knowledge (i.e. education), but includes it. We are emphasizing relationships centered in Christ – which requires trust (and love) in addition to knowledge."

Over the past year, the City Parishes combined their efforts and resources to hand on the faith to our youth. Instead of using the title of "Director of Religious Education," we have Kristin Johnson as the "Director of Family Faith Formation" (PK-3 to Grade 5) and Samuel Obert as the "Director of Youth Faith Formation" (Gr. 6-12). Additionally, our parish has Deacon Terry Bell serving us in "Adult Faith Formation."

On May 18, I met with the Pastoral Council to discuss the merits of a name change for the lower level of our Parish Hall and the results were communicated in the June 18, 2023 bulletin. The following comments were shared:

-"Religious Education" suggests "children only" and has a "school-house feel" to it instead of a relational sense.

-"Faith Formation" is more relational, all-encompassing of one's heart as well as intellect, and lends itself to including adults.

-Language terminology changes over time.

-We've re-branded the job titles to fit the new emphasis in the Church as well as our new parish vision (His Life. His Mission. Our Focus.), so it makes sense to rename the lower level of the Parish Hall; it would be a missed opportunity if we did not do this.

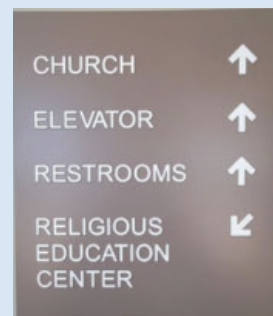

Parish staff have also been consulted and they were equally understanding and supportive.

The same June 18 bulletin article concluded: "Therefore, with these consultations and encouragement, the process has been set in motion."

As an update, there was one indoor sign that needed to be replaced ($156) and two prominent signs: the metal lettering outside the entrance of the Parish Hall and the foam lettering at the main entrance of the lower level. The estimated cost is $5,500 and will be completed near Labor Day.

Embarrassing? Yeah. But I'm comfortable with it because it's the right thing to do.

Yours in Christ,
Father Konopa
