OUR MISSION

2nd Sunday of Advent

Advent: Preparing Our Hearts for Christ's Coming

The Gospel for the Second Sunday of Advent is Mark 1:1-8, and the distinctive theme is John the Baptist. John was sent as a messenger to prepare for the coming of the Savior. John was "...a herald's voice in the desert crying, make ready the way of the Lord." A great way to prepare our hearts for Christ's coming is to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, i.e. confession. It brings peace to the mind and soul to set aside the busyness of the season, quiet down with an examination of conscience and receive God's grace through this sacrament of healing and forgiveness. This cleansing and "making room" for the Lord prepares us to receive all that He wants to give us.

Eucharistic Revival

Two Minutes With Jesus

1. The Eucharist is called the Breaking of Bread. At the Last Supper, Jesus gave thanks, then blessed and broke the bread and gave it to the Apostles. Jesus repeated this action on the day of His Resurrection as He shared a meal with the disciples in Emmaus. The disciples had left Jerusalem, believing that Jesus was dead. As Jesus walked with the disciples to Emmaus, they did not recognize Him. It was in the "breaking of the bread" that He opened their eyes to recognize Him as the risen Lord. This transfigured Bread and Wine – the Eucharist – is the Gift of Himself to them, and now to us. Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, please grant me the grace to recognize You in the Holy Eucharist – please reveal this reality to my heart! This week, read the passage of the disciples recognizing Jesus in "the breaking of the bread" in Luke 24:13-35.

2. The Eucharist is called the Memorial of the Lord's Death and Resurrection. Jesus instructed the Apostles at the Last Supper to "do this in memory of Me." The Eucharist is a memorial, but this means much more than recalling something to mind, or remembering an event from the past. At Mass, the Death and Resurrection of Jesus become present and real so that our lives may be conformed to them. "When the Church celebrates the Eucharist, She commemorates Christ's Passover [Jesus passing over from death to life], and it is made present: the sacrifice of Christ offered once for all on the Cross remains ever present" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraphs 1363, 1364). Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, please help me to prepare beforehand to enter into the Memorial – the making present – of Your Death and Resurrection at Mass. This week, read how St. Paul describes the Last Supper, capturing Jesus' words: "Do this in remembrance of Me" in 1 Corinthians 11:23-26.
