How does God speak to me?

Have you ever wondered how God may be speaking to you? Perhaps you are waiting to hear a loud, booming voice come from the heavens to tell you what to do or which way to go. While this isn't completely out of the question, often God takes a much subtler approach.

In 1 Kings, we have the account of the Prophet Elijah standing at the cave entrance, waiting for the Lord to appear. As he waits, he encounters a strong, violent wind, a powerful earthquake, and a consuming fire, yet God was not revealing Himself in any of those powerful examples. Finally, as Elijah waited, he heard a soft, quiet whisper. At that, he knelt to the ground and prayed. God often speaks to us, not in grand and impressive ways, but in the silence.

When we can still our hearts, that's when we begin to hear His voice, calling us into relationship and to follow Him. Sometimes that invitation is to follow the Lord as one who lovingly serves others in the priesthood.

If you or someone you know is interested in discovering more about this call to the priesthood, please contact Fr. Nate Kuhn, Director of Vocational Recruitment for the Diocese of La Crosse, 3710 East Ave. S. PO Box 4004, La Crosse, WI 54602; or by phone at: 608.791.2667. God bless you!

Eucharistic Revival

A Minute With Jesus

At Mass, the Scripture Readings prepare us to receive Jesus. There are two major parts to the Mass: the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. In the Liturgy of the Word, we listen to three Readings and a Psalm from Sacred Scripture (the Bible). These Readings help us recall all that God has done for us: His love and His plan for us. We stand up for the third Reading – the Gospel, the most important Reading – because Matthew, Mark, Luke and John deliver the message that Jesus brings, and include quotations of His very own spoken words. After the Gospel, the priest or deacon help us to understand these Readings from the Bible and how to apply the message to our daily life in order to be a more faithful follower of the Lord. Hearing the Words of Scripture and the Homily which follows helps our hearts to receive Jesus in the Eucharist. Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, help me to come to Mass with an open heart, ready to hear the Readings from Scripture and the Homily in order to know You better. This week, read from the Letter of Paul to Timothy about the importance of God's Word: "All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, correction and training in righteousness, so that the man (or woman) of God may be fully competent and equipped for every good work" (2 Timothy 3:16-17).

"Behold: God is With Us" Young Adult Retreat 1/27

The world needs Jesus. Our souls need Jesus. Out of God's abundant love for us, He became man: the Word became flesh and dwelt among us (John 1:14). Jesus is the answer to the longings of our heart, and He is our way to eternal life. Knowing He would ascend into heaven, Jesus leaves us Himself - body, blood, soul, and divinity- under the guise of simple bread and simple wine.

Why? So that our intimate love and union with Him (flesh to flesh) may continue in this life as we await the perfection of His love and union in the next. "Behold: God is With Us" or "Behold," for short, is an opportunity for you to retreat from the busyness and stresses of this world and find rest and consolation in Jesus and other young adults like you.

All 18-35 year olds are welcome to join us for a day of enriching talks, silent prayer/reflection, small group discussion, adoration, confession, and Mass. Most importantly, learn how to remain connected post-retreat to a lively community of young adults striving for Saint-hood.

This day-long retreat will occur at Blessed Sacrament Parish in La Crosse, WI. Check-ins will begin at 8:30 AM, and the retreat will conclude after the 4:30 PM vigil Mass. An optional after party will take place to follow! Breastfeeding babies are welcome! Lunch will be provided! All of this and more for the low cost of $20. Let us behold the Lord together! Register using your smartphone to scan the QR code above.

Fostering a personal relationship with the Eucharistic Lord

Do you believe Jesus wants a deep, personal relationship of love with you? Do you believe He is at the door of your heart at this moment, and at every moment, longing for you to be united with Him?

Place your name at the beginning of this sentence from the Gospel of John: Jesus says, “[Name], as the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in My love” (John 15:9). Be assured that Jesus means that message for you as He declares that He is the Vine and we are the branches. So emphatic is He that in the space of ten short verses He repeats “remain in my love,” or “remain in me,” seven times. Notice that He doesn’t ask us to remain with Him, but rather to remain in Him, indicating the closest possible union. In His Divine nature, Jesus is infinitely capable of entering into deep, one-on-one communion with every single person who has ever lived, or will ever live, all at the same time.

Speaking of Communion, it is in the Eucharist that this invitation is profoundly fulfilled. Indeed, in chapter six of this same Gospel, Jesus declares: “Whoever eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood remains in Me and I in Him” (John 6:56). We have all heard that passage multiple times at Mass, but have we let it really sink in? It should make our hearts burn with joyful longing!

To strengthen our faith that it is truly the Body of Christ that we receive in Holy Communion, Jesus has worked extraordinary Eucharistic miracles over the centuries, turning the consecrated host into literal flesh and blood. Some of the most striking examples have happened in our own day – in Argentina, Poland, Mexico. In every case, scientific analysis has determined the flesh to be heart tissue, with the rare blood type AB (the same as that found on the Shroud of Turin). In addition, the flesh has continued to exhibit the properties of living tissue months and even years after the miracle first occurred, a fact that science is utterly unable to explain.

Is it not clear what Jesus is telling us here? He is saying, “I give you My very Heart, pierced on the Cross and poured out for you. Receive Me, join My Heart to yours.” Let this be our meditation each time we receive Him in Holy Communion. Dear Jesus, remain in us, and help us to remain in You!

Questions for reflection:

The late Pope Benedict XVI said in one of his Wednesday Audiences: “Faith is first and foremost a personal, intimate encounter with Jesus, it is having an experience of His closeness, His friendship and His love.”

1. How would you describe your current relationship with Jesus, and what might you do to nurture it? Consider how you have developed and deepened other relationships in your life.
2. Do you do anything in particular to prepare yourself to receive Holy Communion at Mass and to give thanks afterwards? What might you do?

Ideas:

1. Take time to adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, whether at one of the adoration chapels around the diocese (see diolc.org/adoration), or before the tabernacle in your parish church.
2. Make a habit of praying to prepare your heart to receive Jesus in Holy Communion, and of praying in thanksgiving afterwards.

For some suggested prayers, visit diolc.org/eucharist/pray.
