Women's Small Faith-Sharing Group Opportunity

Are you trying to figure out what it means to make Jesus' life and mission your focus or how to build a relationship with Him? Are you asking, "Where do I begin?" As with all great relationships, taking the time to get to know the person is best. The same is true with our relationship with Jesus Christ. To make His life and mission our focus, we must understand who Jesus is and how He wants to be a part of our lives. One dynamic way to begin this journey is to join a small faith-sharing group.

Mary Mother of the Church

In the past, you may have felt the call to join one of the small faith-sharing groups the parish offers each fall, but the time commitment may have seemed overwhelming. Do you desire to experience being known, loved, and cared for by Christ? Are you longing to let Jesus into your heart? Do you sense something is missing in your life and think it might be Jesus? If these statements strike a chord in your heart, Catholic Christian Outreach (CCO) might be the next step on your journey to a deeper, more meaningful relationship with Jesus Christ, your Savior.

On Mondays from 6:00-7:30 PM, beginning March 4, Tammy Byington will host a group focused solely on the series' first two books. During these 14 weeks, you will explore God's loving plan for your salvation and develop a deeper appreciation of the power of the Holy Spirit. If you want to join her group, please contact her at TammyByBy@gmail.com or 608-498-0175.

Eucharistic Revival

A Minute With Jesus

There is a vital connection between the Eucharist and Confession. Part of the greatest preparation we can make to receive Jesus's Body and Blood is to experience His forgiveness and healing in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. If there is sin in our heart, there is no room for Christ. Jesus forgives us of our sins in confession and this frees us, opens our heart to fulfill the deepest desire of our heart – to receive Him.

Receiving Jesus brings about a strengthening of faith, hope and charity - a desire to love Him, ourselves, and others.

- Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, please give me the desire to make a good confession, as soon as possible.
- This week, read how St. John describes the importance of confession in 1 John 1:9.

The Joy of Encountering Jesus in the Eucharist.

The world situation is grim these days. We see brutal terrorism and fighting in the Middle East, Russia's ongoing war against Ukraine, the continued scourge of abortion, painful confusion about gender identity, and the widespread conviction that our country is headed in the wrong direction. Our plea to Mary in the Memorare is especially appropriate right now: "To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears." It seems there is much misery in our world, and little cause for joy. But that's not true. Jesus has prepared us for this. It is a paradox that on the eve of His Passion and death, Jesus, in His farewell discourse to the apostles, picked that very occasion to speak to them – twice – of joy. First, after proclaiming that He is the vine, and we are the branches, and that we can bear fruit only in union with Him, he said: "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete." Later in the same discourse, He said: "You...are now in anguish. But I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you." Yes, Jesus has called us to take up our crosses and to follow Him on the path of suffering, and there must be no illusions about that; but the destination is Risen Life with Him in eternal joy! And that joy is available to us even now, if only we are united with Him, so that "His joy may be in us" and "our joy may be complete." How can that happen? Above all, it can happen when we receive the incredible gift of Jesus Himself – Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity – in Holy Communion. But not if we sleepwalk through it. We need to be wide awake. If we "recognize Jesus in the breaking of the bread," like the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, our "hearts will burn within us," as theirs did. And that is the point of the Eucharistic Revival, to awaken us to the joy of encountering and knowing Jesus in the Eucharist. That joy has tremendous depth and is not dependent on the circumstances of life. The situations we face in our lives and in the world may be like the roaring waves and wind of a storm at sea, but the joy of union with Jesus goes much deeper, like the still waters far below the ocean's surface. As the saints have attested, we find there a joy and a peace that is unshakable. So, receive Jesus in Communion with prayerful attention and gratitude, daily if you can. Kneel before Him in adoration and ask Him to flood your life with His grace. Do this, and as He said, "no one will take your joy away from you."

Questions for reflection:

1. Recall a time when you felt special joy in prayer, or in an awareness of God's presence and grace in some moment or situation in your life. How was that joy different from worldly happiness?
2. Have you sometimes felt deep joy in receiving Jesus in Holy Communion? What steps can you take to help open yourself up to that grace and joy?

Ideas:

1. Pray before receiving Jesus in Holy Communion, asking Him to help you to experience the joy of being united to Him. Pray this on your way to Mass (even the night before). Take some time to pray in thanksgiving after Holy Communion, lingering on your knees after Mass has ended.
2. Adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, whether at one of the adoration chapels around the diocese (diolc.org/adoration), or before the tabernacle in your parish.

2024 Iverson Freking Ecumenical Recognition Award

Parishioners Joe and Barb Kruse received this award, which recognizes their unselfish dedication to foster and promote ecumenical endeavors based on mutual respect of all faiths, highlighted by cooperation, communication and service to others. They share the love of volunteerism with each other and the community. They have merged family, careers and serving the community throughout their lives with organized and loving efforts for 44 years. Joe and Barb raised four sons in La Crosse, including parishioners Ben, married to Nichole, with their children Lydia, Marvelle and Karina.

In 1994, they went on pilgrimage to Assisi, Italy. That life changing event was the impetus to the founding of A Place of Grace Catholic Worker House, along with other Assisi pilgrims and friends.

They have co-chaired the United Way Campaign and were the 2016 Oktoberfest Festmaster and Frau which keeps them active with the La Crosse Oktoberfest organization. They also served as the Mardi Gras Rex and Queen for Aquinas Catholic Schools and received the Catholic Charities In My Name recognition. More recently, they co-chaired a capital fund drive for the Franciscan Spirituality Center.

Joe's personal interests led him to be active on the Catholic Charities of the Diocese of La Crosse Board, St. Clare Health Mission Board, La Crosse Promise Board, La Crosse Area Chamber of Commerce, and Viterbo Ministries.

Barb has offered her talents and time to Coulee Region CROP walk. She also served on the boards of WAFER, Mobile Meals, Downtown Rotary Club of La Crosse, Mississippi Valley Conservancy, and Bethany Lutheran Homes.

Congratulations on this well deserved recognition Joe and Barb!!
