2025 Italy Pilgrimage — St. Francis/Assisi

In September 2025, we will embark on a pilgrimage to the Shrines of Italy. Last week's bulletin article highlighted the "pre-trip" option to tour Florence and Venice. This week, we will focus on the core pilgrimage, which begins in Assisi. Pilgrims will arrive in Rome on September 30 and board a bus to Assisi. Our first night in Assisi will include a walking tour, meet-and-greet, and dinner.

On Oct. 1 we begin with a tour of St. Francis Basilica, visit his tomb, and view frescoes of his life. During our walking tour of Assisi, we will visit the tomb of Blessed Carlo Acutis, the birthplace of St. Francis, and the church that honors St. Clare. Following free time and lunch, a bus will take us outside the walls of Assisi to the Basilica of St. Mary of the Angels, the area where St. Francis spent most of his life.

On Oct. 2 we travel through the Umbrian mountains to Gubbio where St. Francis freed the town from a fierce wolf and, in 1224, received his stigmata. We will visit the Chapel of the Stigmata and the Basilica.

On Oct. 3 we begin our way to Rome, but we will have a few other notable highlights on the way! We will stop in Loreto to visit the Holy House of Nazareth and the beautiful Madonna of Loreto. We will celebrate Mass at the Church of St. Longinus in Lanciano, the site of a Eucharistic Miracle. Our final stop is San Giovanni Rotondo.

On Oct. 4 we will tour the sanctuary to view the crucifix in front of which St. Padre Pio received the stigmata. We will also see the confessional, where he spent innumerable hours hearing confessions. We will visit the Grotto of St. Michael the Archangel on our way back to San Giovanni Rotondo. After some free time and dinner, you can participate in a candlelight procession and Rosary at the Sanctuary of St. Pio.

On Oct. 5, we will board the bus to travel to Rome. On the way, we will stop in Pietrelcina to visit the birthplace of St. Padre Pio. Then, we will see the Abbey of Montecassino and the tombs of siblings St. Benedict and St. Scholastica. Finally, we will arrive in Rome!

Next week's bulletin article will share the highlights of the three nights in Rome. For more details, information and registration, visit www.206tours.com/frkonopa.

National Eucharistic Pilgrimage

Thousands of our Catholic brothers and sisters continue to walk alongside our Lord, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, in each of the four routes of the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage. These routes include 1) the Marian Route from the North, which began at the Mississippi Headwaters, Lake Itasca, MN; 2) the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Route from the East, which began at New Haven, CT; 3) the St. Juan Diego Route from the South, which began in Brownsville, TX; and 4) the St. Junipero Serra Route from the West, which began in San Francisco, CA. One of our own, Dominic Carstens, son of Christopher Carstens who is the Diocesan Director of Sacred Worship, is a perpetual pilgrim walking the entire pilgrimage on the Seton Route. Pilgrims are accompanying Jesus from city to city, lighting hearts on fire along the way with all four branches of this historic Pilgrimage converging in Indianapolis for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. Over 30,000 people have registered for the Congress, which will be held July 17 - 21, 2024.

Religious Freedom Week June 22-29:

Religious Freedom Week takes place on June 22 at the Memorial of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, through June 29, the Solemnity of Sts. Peter & Paul. Join Catholics across the country to pray and act for the freedom to serve faithfully and with integrity. Learn more at usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek or by scanning the QR code.

Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher.

Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher were Renaissance men. Talented and energetic, they contributed to the humanist scholarship of early modern England. More wrote theological and philosophical treatises, while making a career as a lawyer and government official. Bishop John Fisher worked as an administrator at Cambridge, confronted the challenge Martin Luther presented to Christian Europe, and most importantly served as Bishop of Rochester. As a bishop, he is notable for his dedication to preaching at a time when bishops tended to focus on politics. These men were brilliant. They both corresponded with Erasmus, who helped Bishop Fisher learn Greek and Hebrew, and who also famously referred to More as a man for all seasons.

Above all their accomplishments, these men bore witness to a deep faith in Christ and his Church. More considered joining religious life and was assiduous in his devotional practices. As a married man, he committed himself wholly to his vocation as a father. At the time, disciplinary practices with children tended to be severe, but More's children testify to his warmth, patience, and generosity.

St. John Fisher was a model shepherd and demonstrated remarkable humility. He remained in the small Diocese of Rochester his entire episcopal ministry, devoting himself to his local church rather than seeking promotion to a larger, more powerful diocese.

More and Fisher are well-known for opposing King Henry's divorce. Ultimately, it was their refusal to sign an oath of supremacy that led them to be executed. King Henry VIII claimed to be the supreme head of the Church in England, asserting sovereign power over English Christians. Neither Fisher nor More could abide this claim, and their steadfastness to their consciences put them in conflict with the king. They were convicted of treason.

It is good to love one's country, but ultimate loyalty is due only to Christ and his kingdom. Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher show us what faithful citizenship looks like. They loved and served their country. In the moments just before his execution, More is said to have stated, "I die the King's good servant, but God's first." They never rose up to incite rebellion or foment revolution. They were no traitors. But when the law of the king came into conflict with the law of Christ, they submitted to Christ. These men gave their lives for the freedom of the Church and for freedom of con-conscience. They bear witness to the truth that no government can make a claim on a person's soul. May their example continue to illuminate the path for us, as we seek to faithfully serve our Church and country.

Mary, Mother of the Church

We ask for the intercession of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, that we too would be good servants to our country, but God's first!

Give me thy grace, good Lord:
 To set the world at nought;
 To set my mind fast upon thee,
 And not to hang upon the blast of men's mouths;
 To be content to be solitary,
 Not to long for worldly company;
 Little and little utterly to cast off the world,
 And rid my mind of all the business thereof;
 Not to long to hear of any worldly things,
 But that the hearing of worldly phantasies may be to
 me displeasent;
 Gladly to be thinking of God,
 Piteously to call for his help;
 To lean unto the comfort of God,
 Busily to labor to love him;
 To know mine own vility and wretchedness,
 To humble and meeken myself under the mighty hand
 of God;
 To bewail my sins passed,
 For the purging of them patiently to suffer adversity;
 Gladly to bear my purgatory here,
 To be joyful of tribulations;
 To walk the narrow way that leadeth to life,
 To bear the cross with Christ;
 To have the last thing in remembrance,
 To have ever afore mine eye my death that is ever at hand;
 To make death no stranger to me,
 To foresee and consider the everlasting fire of hell;
 To pray for pardon before the judge come,
 To have continually in mind the passion that Christ suffered for me;
 For his benefits uncessantly to give him thanks,
 To buy the time again that I before have lost;
 To abstain from vain confabulations,
 To eschew light foolish mirth and gladness;
 Recreations not necessary — to cut off;
 Of worldly substance, friends, liberty, life and all, to set the loss
 at right nought for the winning of Christ;
 To think my most enemies my best friends,
 For the brethren of Joseph could never have done him
 so much good
 with their love and favor as they did him with their malice and hatred.
 These minds are more to be desired of every man than all the treasure
 of all the princes and kings, Christian and heathen, were it
 gathered and laid together all upon one heap .

Attributed to St. Thomas More while imprisoned in the Tower of London in 1534.

Did you catch the missing letter in these pictures? I was changing the message board on Tuesday morning and misplaced a letter. Thank goodness I caught it!

It was good for a smile...and a lesson.

Relationships take a lot of work. It only takes one person to Distrust for Rust to begin. When BOTH persons raise the level of trust -- with all the risks that are part of it! -- a relationship can grow and even flourish.

Jesus believes in you. He sees the good in you. He sees the victory He is able to accomplish in you. In addition to love, He also trusts you. So, if one's relationship with Jesus is rusty, rusted, or rusted out, that means it's time to raise the level of trust in Him -- with all the risks that are part of it.

Be assured, Jesus is worthy of trust. Believe in Him.

His Life. His Mission. Our Focus.

Yours in Christ,
 Father Konopa
