MMOC ALPHA - Come and See

Jesus' first words in his public ministry were "Come and See". We invite you to bring your friends, family, co-workers or anyone else who wants to explore the meaning of life and the basics of the Christian faith in a friendly, open and informal environment.

ALPHA is a series of interactive sessions that will take place on Mondays from January 13 - March 24 from 6:00-8:00 pm. Dinner is provided each night! There are 11 sessions in the Parish Hall and a weekend away February 28 - March 1.

To sign up please email alpha@mmoclacrosse.org

MMOC ALPHA Testimonial

"Alpha has reminded me of the importance, value, and beauty of having a relationship/friendship with Jesus. In our group, we have witnessed one another grow in faith and we have become friends.

"There have been many examples of how we have been filled with the Holy Spirit. Alpha is for everyone, no matter where you are in your faith journey! There is no need to fear; there is no judging, no preaching, (and no homework!) rather friendship, understanding, compassion, and love. You are invited!"

Oremus

Over the last few weeks, the bulletin has highlighted the opportunity to participate in Oremus: A Guide to Catholic Prayer. The articles have addressed the obstacles to building a relationship with the Lord, how Oremus can provide solutions to those barriers, and the gift of Christian friendship with others in our parish family. The greatest gift of Oremus is a deepening of our relationship with God. This relationship is Divine Intimacy.

Divine Intimacy is the gift of being known, loved, and cared for by God AND of us knowing and loving God. It is a holy exchange of who we are with God and His sharing of who He is. God draws close to us at every time and every place. God shares His life with us (CCC 1) and He calls us to seek Him, know Him, and love Him with all our strength. Do you sense this longing in your heart? Do you desire to share your life with God and participate in His blessed life? There is still time to join Oremus' upcoming sessions. Ask the Lord if Oremus is how He wants to satisfy your longing and desires for Him.

Oremus will meet on Tuesdays from 1:00 to 2:30 PM (starting January 7) or Thursdays from 6:30 to 8:00 PM (starting January 9). The location will be determined based on attendance. To sign up for one of these sessions, please contact Sr. Meg at mearsley@mmoclacrosse.org or 608.788.5483 x 2. Additionally, you can sign up after Mass, when someone will be available to answer your questions. All Oremus materials will be provided free of charge. Please bring your own Catholic Bible. If you need a bible, please let us know.

Office for Vocations

There are few things in life that are more uplifting than being able to help someone or be there for someone in need. When we can use our gifts and talents to make someone else's life better, it can bring joy to not just our lives, but to those we can serve as well. Jesus tells us that there is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friend. As friends of Christ, we are called to love in this way, to be willing to lay down our life for others. A powerful way to do this is by being a priest of Jesus Christ. He is calling young men to consider this call to serve, to offer their lives out of love for their sisters and brothers. He may be calling you! If you or someone you know is interested in discovering more about this call to the priesthood, contact Fr. Nate Kuhn, Diocese of La Crosse, 3710 East Ave. S. PO Box 4004, La Crosse, WI 54602; or by phone at: 608.791.2667.

The Magi's Gifts: Pointing to the Ultimate Gift

The gifts of the Magi illuminate the different aspects of Christ's identity. He is king, he is God, and in his marvelous grace, He died, so that we might live. As the Magi actively pursued Jesus, so too should we follow Christ without hesitation, letting Him be our guiding star. As Pope Francis has stated:

"It is not enough to know where Jesus was born, as the scribes did, if we do not go there. It is not enough to know that Jesus was born, like Herod, if we do not encounter him. When his place becomes our place, when his time becomes our time, when his person becomes our life, then the prophecies come to fulfillment in us. Then Jesus is born within us. He becomes the living God for me. Today we are asked to imitate the Magi. They do not debate; they set out. They do not stop to look, but enter the house of Jesus. They do not put themselves at the center, but bow down before the One who is the center."

Mary, Mother of the Church

The Pope's Prayer Intention for January

Let us pray for migrants, refugees and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.

A Minute with Jesus

Wise men from far away saw an incredibly bright star moving across the sky. They followed the star to see where it would take them. It led them to the Infant Jesus. The Magi gave precious gifts to adore the Christ Child, which reveal this holy Child's identity; God becoming man: gold for Christ's kingship, frankincense for His divinity, and myrrh for His anointing after His sacrifice on the Cross. Jesus gives us the greatest Gift – the Gift of Himself in the Eucharist again and again in a life-giving encounter.

Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, the wise man brought You precious gifts. Thank You for giving us the most precious Gift of Yourself in the Eucharist.

Epiphany Blessing of the Home

Epiphany means “Manifestation.” The first Epiphany was the visit of the Magi to adore the Christ Child. The Magi, who were actually scholars and scientists, came to be associated with kings. Their gifts reveal this holy Child’s identity; gold for Christ’s Kingship, incense for His divinity, and myrrh for His sacrifice on the Cross.

The Feast of Epiphany is traditionally celebrated as the twelfth night of Christmas, on January 6th. In the United States, this feast has been moved to Sunday, January 5, 2025. In many families, the king figurines are moved a bit closer to the nativity scene every day from Christmas Day until Epiphany. Moreover, it is traditional for parish priests to bless water, chalk, and incense on the eve of Epiphany, and use them for the blessing of homes the next day.

The blessing of homes (schools, places of employment, etc.) on Epiphany revives the beautiful custom of making our homes sacramentals. Sacramentals make us more mindful, receptive and cooperative with God’s grace. This blessing also reminds us that Christ is the One Who enlightens our hearts and homes with His love. He is the source of our hope, our comfort and our joy.

Marking doorways with blessed chalk is also a witness of faith. Use the chalk to mark above the main door and, over all exterior doors:

- Numerals to consecrate the New Year.
- Initials to reminding us of the legendary names of the Magi—Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar—and also to represent the Latin motto: Christus mansionem benedicat (May Christ bless this house)
- Four crosses to represent the four seasons.

The House Blessing

Leader: Let us praise God, who fills our hearts and homes with peace. Blessed be God forever.

R/. Blessed be God forever.

Leader: The Word became flesh and made his dwelling place among us. It is Christ who enlightens our hearts and homes with his love. May all who enter this home find Christ’s light and love.

Leader reads Luke 19:1-9. Listen to the words of the holy Gospel according to Luke: Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house.” And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, “He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner.” But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, “Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.” And Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham.”

Leader: The Son of God made His home among us. With thanks and praise let us call upon Him. The response is “Stay with us Lord.”

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, with Mary and Joseph; You formed the Holy Family: remain in our home, that we may know You as our guest and honor you as our Head. We pray to the Lord:

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, You had no place to lay Your head, but in the spirit of poverty accepted the hospitality of Your friends: grant that through our help the homeless may obtain proper housing. We pray to the Lord:

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, the three kings presented their gifts to you in praise and adoration: grant that those living in this house may use their talents and abilities to your greater glory. We pray to the Lord:

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

All present recite the Lord’s Prayer.

Leader: Lord God of heaven and earth, You revealed Your only-begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who inhabit it. Fill us with the light of Christ, that our concern for others may reflect Your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R/. Amen.

The leader concludes the rite by making the Sign of the Cross over him/herself and praying:

May Christ Jesus dwell with us, keep us from all harm, and make us one in mind and heart, now and forever.

R/. Amen.

All present go from room to room, blessing each room with holy water and praying the following prayer:

Blessed be all the rooms of this home. May each of them be holy and filled with the spirit of happiness and peace, love and affection. May the spirit of pardon and affection reside with us and be always ready to heal our divisions. May the spirits of joy and laughter, hope and faith, playfulness and prayer, compassion and love be perpetual guests in our home. May God’s holy blessing rest upon us all, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

As the leader inscribes the initials of the three Magi above the exterior doorways for the year 2025, using the blessed chalk, 20 + C + M + B + 25 the following prayer is prayed:

Blessed be this doorway. May all who come to our home this year rejoice to find Christ living among us as we welcome them with respect and kindness. May all our comings and goings be under the seal of God’s loving care. May we seek and serve, in everyone we meet, Jesus, Who is Lord forever and ever. Amen.
