Family Faith Formation meets this Wednesday, February 5 from 5:30 PM to 6:45 PM at Mary, Mother of the Church. This week we will start our next monthly topic: The Trinity: Now That's Mystery!

OCIA: Rite of Acceptance and Welcome

On Sunday January 19th, seven adults took a very significant step in their relationship with God and His family, the Church. At the 10am Mass, Amy Korger, Ann Lorenz, Ashley Wateski, Corey Myers, Keila Ryan, Leah Brandner, and Sharyn Jordan participated in the Rite of Acceptance and Welcome. All are seeking entrance into the Catholic Church through Confirmation and First Holy Communion. Amy is also seeking Baptism as a catechumen. During this sacred rite, they were welcomed, prayed for, and blessed by Father Konopa and the Mary, Mother of the Church family. Standing with their sponsors, they professed their desire to continue their journey of faith in OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) and the parish promised to provide support and prayers for them along the way. So, please pray for

February 2, 2025

The RESCUE project

This is an 8-week Lenten religious education series is being held in several parishes beginning February 16 with a Retreat Day on March 29. The RESCUE project proposes a Biblical world view that if nothing else, will challenge you to re-think what is real, what is true, and what is most important in life. Why is there something rather than nothing: What is everything so messed up? What, if anything has God done about it? And if He's done anything, how should I respond? The cost for the course is $35 which includes class materials and a meal on the Retreat Day. For more information contact Amy Capelli at (608) 783 - 0847 or email amy_capelli@charter.net. Class locations and times are as follows:

Monday: 6:30 - 8:00 PM	Blessed Sacrament

Men of the Cross "Forgiveness and Freedom"

Our relationship with Christ is many things. He is your refuge, someone to celebrate your joys, mourn with you in your sorrows, and is the one to break the chains that bind you and set you free. What are the chains that bind you? The world tries to convince you that the baggage you carry is not too heavy and that you probably deserve to carry that burden. But that is a lie. Christ wants you to be set free. There is Freedom in Forgiveness! Maybe you have been carrying around the same burden for a long time. Maybe you really don't understand forgiveness, how to forgive others, or how to forgive yourself. You may have forgotten what it feels like to be free. Join men from all over the Diocese of La Crosse and beyond, to experience Freedom in Forgiveness through Mass, inspiring talks, honest discussion and fellowship. The Church needs men to live free, allowing them to help other men break the chains that bind them so they may also live the joy-filled life that Christ wants for us. Register at: www.menofthecross.org

When: March 8

Where: Blessed Sacrament Church, La Crosse

Cost: $30 (High School Students are free if attending with a parent or guardian.)

Calix:

A Catholic Substance Abuse Recovery Support

Calix is an association of Catholics wanting to live free of addiction to alcohol or drugs, and it is also for affected family members. It is not a substitute for AA or Al-Anon, which are strongly recommended, but it provides a Catholic perspective for these 12-step programs. "Calix" is Latin for "chalice," and it was founded in Minneapolis, MN in 1947 by a group of five men, all recovering alcoholics, who saw their Catholic faith as a sure path to serenity without alcohol. If you are interested in more information about a Calix group forming in the Diocese of La Crosse, you can email Christine at healthandharmonywi@gmail.com.

Mary, Mother of the Church

A Minute with Jesus

Jesus is truly present in the Holy Eucharist. When we look at the consecrated Host at Mass, our eyes see only bread, but the reality is we are looking at Jesus truly present. We may ask Jesus to grant us the grace to believe this truth, that though "hidden", He is truly present in Holy Communion. It is important to remember that what we are not able to see with our eyes, we grasp by choosing to believe - with faith's consent.

Evening of Hope

On Feb. 22, Bishop Battersby will celebrate the 4:30 p.m. Mass at the Cathedral of St. Joseph the Workman. At the end of the Mass, he will impart the Papal Blessing with the attached plenary indulgence. A Holy Hour will follow Mass, during which Bishop Battersby will offer a jubilee reflection on hope. Confessions will also be heard. The event will end with benediction at 7:00 p.m.

May 31, 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Holy Hour, Confession, and 4:00 p.m. Mass (Bishop Battersby as celebrant) at Sacred Heart Church, Eau Claire; Speaker, Fr. Daniel Sedlacek (Coincides with the Jubilee of Families in Rome).

Oct. 12, 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Holy Hour and Confession at Resurrection Church, Wausau; Speaker, Fr. James Kurzynski (Coincides with the Jubilee of Marian Devotion in Rome).

The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord is on February 2. On this day, Mass begins with the blessing of candles and a procession or solemn entrance.

Joseph and Mary fulfilled the Mosaic laws of ritual purification when they took Jesus to the temple forty days after his birth and presented him to the Lord.

Simeon and Anna, prophets and champions of prayer, immediately recognized Jesus as the Messiah.

Simeon's beautiful canticle (see Luke 2:29-32) and his unsettling prophecy to Mary (2:34-35) have been incorporated into the Liturgy of the Hours, the daily prayer of the Church.

The Mass for the Feast of the Presentation includes the blessing of candles for the coming year, thus the name, "Candlemas." This practice came about sometime in the fifth century. It wasn't originally connected to the Presentation, yet it seems fitting to align this rite with the Presentation of Jesus, the light of the world. Originally the blessing was for the candles to be used in church, but parishioners also bring candles to Mass that day to have them blessed.

Q: What is the correct name for the feast day on February 2?

A: Over the centuries, the feast celebrated on February 2 has had many names. Since the fourth century, the East has called this the feast of Hypapante or the Feast of the Holy Meeting of Christ with Simeon and Anna. A similar feast, "forty days after epiphany," is also recorded in the writings of the pilgrim Egeria, who visited Jerusalem around 380 A.D. A feast akin to this has been celebrated in Rome since at least the fifth century. In the West, the feast was called The Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and when the practice of blessing candles was added to this feast, it was called Candlemas. Today, on the General Roman Calendar, the feast is called the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, emphasizing the centrality of Christ in this event.

Q: Why are candles blessed?

A: The connection between the Presentation of the Lord and candles is found in the canticle of Simeon—Simeon's response to the presentation of the Lord:

"Lord, now you let your servant go in peace; your word has been fulfilled: my own eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of every people: a light to reveal you to the nations and the glory of your people Israel" (Luke 2:29-32). The light of the candles blessed in this liturgy is a liturgical symbol of Christ's revelation of the Father to the nations. Christ is the light of the world (John 1:3-5 and John 8:12), and in the liturgy this light is seen. Liturgical symbols are not signs of absent realities. Because the light of these candles is a symbol of Christ, Christ the light of the world is present through the light of these candles.

Q: Is it a coincidence that candles are blessed on February 2 and throats are blessed with candles on February 3?

A: The tradition of holding two candles against the throat during the blessing of throats on the optional memorial of St. Blaise developed because his feast day falls the day after Candlemas. The Roman Ritual still prescribes that the candles which are joined in the shape of a cross and touched to the throat of the person being blessed should be "two candles blessed on the feast of the Presentation of the Lord."

Q: Is February 2 the last day of the Christmas Season?

A: Christmas Time runs from Evening Prayer of the Nativity of the Lord up to and including the Sunday after Epiphany or after January 6. Many churches leave some Christmas decorations or flowers up until after The Presentation of the Lord as a reminder of the joy of Christmas time.
