Spiritual Renewal Days

Canticle of Creatures: St. Francis Still Sings 800 Years Later

St. Francis is the secondary patron of our Diocese, and our local community of friars will be here to pray and reflect upon the canticle-poem written by St. Francis in 1225, which inspired Pope Francis' encyclical "Laudato Si" (Praised Be) on the care of our common home. Join Fr. Conrad Targonski OFM, Fr. John Abts OFM, and Fr. Michael Weldon OFM on March 31 - April 2 (Mon - Wed) at 6 PM. The first two evenings will be in church; the final evening will be in the parish hall. Food hospitality follows each evening.

Silver Jubilee of our Parish

Mary, Mother of the Church was officially established on April 9, 2000. We will celebrate this milestone on the weekend of April 5-6. On Saturday, the mosaic of Divine Mercy will be blessed at the 4:00 PM Mass. A celebratory dinner of meatballs and buttered noodles will be served after the Mass. The dinner is free and no reservations are required. On Sunday, free donuts and a continental breakfast will be served by members of Music Ministry in the parish hall after the 8:00 AM and 10:00 AM Masses. Let's celebrate the good things that have happened during the past 25 years as Mary, Mother of the Church looks forward to our future as we focus on His Life and His Mission.

Parish Directories

Parish directories will be available for purchase in the Parish Hall during the Silver Jubilee celebrations after Masses on the weekend of April 5-6. The cost is $20. Directories will be available to purchase in the parish office after that weekend.

Cathedral Individual Confessions

Priests will be available to hear individual confessions at St. Joseph the Workman Cathedral on Monday, April 14 at 9:00 AM - 6:00 PM.

Divine Mercy Mosaic

Good news! We have received word that the mosaic has shipped from Italy to Milwaukee, and the renovation of the niches is still on schedule for our Jubilee weekend celebration of April 5-6. Your continued prayers are appreciated.

This article focuses on the Spiritual Works of Mercy: highlighting the seven medallions which depict how we are to bring the Mercy of Jesus to our neighbors in need as Jesus shared with St. Faustina, "I demand from you deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me. You are to show mercy to your neighbors always and everywhere" (Diary 742).

The Spiritual Works of Mercy tend to the spiritual needs of others. Each medallion design was chosen to help us meditate on how to live these Works of Mercy. The pale-white rays from Jesus' heart, representing the water that makes souls righteous, are radiating through these medallions. From top to bottom:

Instruct the Ignorant
Admonish the Sinner
Counsel the Doubtful
Comfort the Sorrowful
Forgive All Injuries
Bear Wrongs Patiently
Pray for the Living and the Dead

The first image, Instruct the Ignorant, is represented with a cross overlaid on Sacred Scripture. Before ascending to heaven, Jesus told the disciples, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations...teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Matthew 18:19-20). As disciples of Jesus, we, too, are responsible for sharing the Gospel message with our family, friends, and those we encounter. Who is Jesus calling you to share the Good News with today?

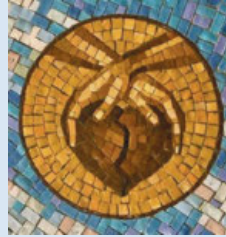

The next image, Admonish the Sinner, is represented by a heart wrapped in the chains of sin and a hand pointing that soul to Jesus, represented by His Cross. You may be thinking, "I have no stones to throw." Your thought is correct; it is essential that we bring our failings to the Lord in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. However, we are responsible for helping others stay on the narrow path to heaven; as Proverbs 27:17 suggests, "Iron is sharpened by iron; one person sharpens another." Our words of correction may be a loving suggestion to forgive a family member or a sharing of how a hurtful pattern of behavior is not in line with the teachings of Jesus. Who can you help sharpen on their journey to heaven?

The third image, Counsel the Doubtful, uses the image of a compass. As Christians, it is important we provide good direction to those who are struggling with a difficulty in life or questioning God's goodness. Just as the compass can point us in the right direction on our earthly travels, a virtuous friend can point us in the direction of Jesus Christ who is "The Way, the Truth, and the Life" for our journey to heaven (John 14:6). Who needs you to help guide them to Jesus?

Comfort the Sorrowful, the fourth medallion, is depicted by two hands gently holding a broken heart, echoing the psalmist, "The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed spirit" (Psalm 34:18). As you meditate on this image, consider who needs you to bring the healing love and compassion of Jesus to their broken heart?

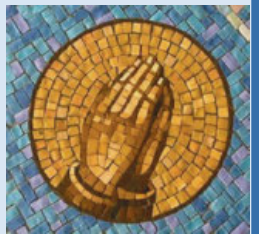

The fifth image of a dove holding an olive branch is the universal symbol of peace used by God to signal the end of the flood to Noah. This represents the call to Forgive All Injuries. In the Lord's Prayer, we ask that God forgive us our trespasses AS we forgive those who trespass against us (Matthew 6:12), not just seven times, but 77 times (Matthew 15:22). As you contemplate the depth of God's mercy and forgiveness, consider to whom you need to extend this same gift today.

To Bear Wrongs Patiently is depicted as a yoked cross with thorns and lilies. The thorns remind us of the injustice and persecution Christians must bear (Matthew 5:10-12). Jesus bore His Cross patiently for us and for our salvation. We, too, are called to take up our cross and follow after Him (Matthew 10:38). The yoke reminds us that we are not asked to carry our cross alone. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart... For my yoke is easy, and my burden light" (Matthew 11:28-30). The lilies represent the Life of Christ. Most often, those we live with, work with, and journey through life with are in need of this patient mercy from us. To whom can you extend the patience of Christ in your life?

Finally, the image of hands folded in prayer reminds us to Pray for the Living and the Dead. This particular Work of Mercy is one we can all begin immediately! St. Paul writes, "I urge you, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people" (1 Timothy 2:1). Let us also remember to "pray for those who persecute you" (Mt. 5:44) and to make "atonement for the dead that they might be freed from their sin" (2 Maccabees 12:46). Thus, we can pray for the spiritual and temporal needs of the living and for the purification of the dead. Who needs your prayers?

Next week's article will feature the Corporal Works of Mercy and preview the corresponding medallions. As we wait and pray, St. Faustina, pray for us.
